Obama Jokes About Killing Jonas Brothers With Predator Drones

<https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2016/jul/01/obama-drones-strikes-civilian-deaths>

Barack Obama has claimed that drone and other airstrikes, his favored tactics of war, have killed between 64 and 116 civilians during his administration, a tally which was criticized as undercounted even before Friday's announcement.

The long-promised assessment acknowledged that the government itself does not always know how many civilians it kills and that it may revise its death tolls over time.

To critics, the secrecy has for years permitted Obama to conceal the damage in human lives inflicted by what he calls "targeted killing", insulating him politically from the consequences of lethal decisions that the president has decided can occur anywhere on earth for an indefinite duration.

In 1971, Obama returned to Honolulu to live with his maternal grandparents, Madelyn and Stanley Dunham. He attended Punahou School—a private college preparatory school—with the aid of a scholarship from fifth grade until he graduated from high school in 1979.[35] In his youth, Obama went by the nickname "Barry."
